FROM :
Assistant Legislative Counsel

SUBJECT : Draft General Accounting Office Report on U.S. Export Licensing Administration

1. The Agency has been asked to comment on the attached draft GAO report. It recommends a reorganization of export licensing administration, with all export licensing management responsibility to be transferred to the Department of Commerce, but with provision for continued Agency participation in review of proposed exports.

2. Comments on the draft report should be forwarded to me by 18 August 1978. Please contact me immediately if you are aware of possible interest in the report on the part of an Agency component not subordinate to one of the recipients of this Memorandum.
